General Information

In order to mitigate against unconscious bias in consideration of the applications the Trustees will review Section 2 of the Application without receiving details of the applicant's name or e-mail or, if applicable, where the applicant works. Section 2 of the Application should not refer to such details and the Trustees will not consider Applications that do so.

Funding

If the Trustees decide to make a grant this will be conditional on the balance of money required being secured, and paid from elsewhere. The Trust funds will then be paid direct to Solent University.

The payment is towards course fees only.

The funding is dependent on the candidate being accepted on the Course by Solent University

Follow Up Requirements
